

Variety Store On Marcelina Reopens Today

The newest business couple in Torrance today is Mr. and Mrs. Leo Mischel who are reopening the Torrance Variety Store at 1423 Marcelina avenue today.

Mischel was one of the first ex-G.I.'s in Southern California to set up a business on a G.I. loan when he opened a variety store in El Monte which he operated three years.

Mischel said he will have special prices during "Reopening Days" from today until February 25.

He also announced that utility bills may be paid at the store.

Relative Learns of Death of Brother in Minneapolis

Joseph G. Arnold of 1551 Post avenue learned this past week of the death of his brother, T. B. Arnold, 46, of St. James, Minn. Death followed a lingering illness.

Mrs. Arthur Bello, wife of the pastor of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, and the couple's 10-month-old son, Jonathan, left Friday for several weeks visit with her grandfather, John Hart, in New York City. The baby, whom he has never seen, is Mr. Hart's only great-grandson, and his desire to see the baby prompted the visit.

New Classes Offered At Torrance Adult School

With the addition of a new adult class in dressmaking, homemaking classes will be held Monday through Thursday at Torrance School of Adult Education.

The new dressmaking class under Besse Louise Marsh will start Monday night, February 20, from 6:30-9:30 in room 301, Torrance High School. The class will feature the operation of the sewing machine, the making of coats, dresses, and children's clothes. Students are invited to bring their own material so that the teacher can give individual instruction in making the finished garment. There is no charge for this class or for the use of any of the sewing machines.

The interior decorating class now forming is open to students who are interested in furnishing a new home or redesigning an old one. Subjects discussed will be: How to arrange furniture in your home, how to use color to advantage, how to select and buy furniture, how to create a happy family life through the use of good appointments and orderliness of design in your home.

The interior decorating class, conducted by Cherraine Pinner, who has traveled extensively in Central and South America, brings to those attending world-wide, inexpensive, down-to-earth ideas for the furnishing of simple Southern California homes.

A new night class in lampshade-making held each Wednesday night at 6:30 in room 301, shows the students how to make expensive lampshades inexpensively. Students are shown how different types of lamps go with different rooms and different types of furnishings. They are shown how to select material and make the finished product. Special emphasis is placed on cutting costs and building up glamor and charm in the home.

The rugmaking class, held each Wednesday morning from 9 to 12 at the Methodist Church is free to all women who want to make simple, inexpensive hooked and braided rugs. For further information about these and other free, adult classes telephone Torrance 645.

$100 CHECK DONATED TO DIMES CAMPAIGN

Prompted by a news story that Torrance was lagging in its support of the March of Dimes campaign, the Torrance Junior Woman's Club this week donated $100 to the drive.

"When we learned through a newspaper story carried in the Torrance Herald that our city was far behind the goal—so far behind that we had not subscribed enough to care for the polio victims who were stricken in our own community last year, we decided to do something about it," said Mrs. Philip Jensen, president of the club.

"We hope that our action will set a precedent that other clubs and organizations in the community will follow," she commented.

The $100 donated to the campaign is in addition to the donation the group will give to the California Federation of Women's Clubs for the purchase of an iron lung for the district. Among the other philanthropic activities carried on by the local women's group is the building of a fund to finance the construction of a YWCA building in Torrance. The annual Torrance Queen contest is sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club as a means of adding to the YWCA building fund.

Mothers of three of the six Torrance polio victims last year were members of the Junior Woman's Club.
